FLEETING MEMORIES of four years of our lives . . . years of awakening, emotion, loss, and success.

Years of . . . life . . . often met with feigned indifference . . . sought after . . . grasped at . . . too often lost . . . a loss into the river of time.

This loss can be averted by turning our minds to the happenings recorded within the pages of this book . . . pages of our lives.

. . . listening . . . understanding
. . . respecting our ideals . . .
guiding us toward our goals . . .

"Thou wert my guide,
philosopher, friend."

To
Miss Beaulieu
and
Mr. O'Connell

This book is as much
yours as it is ours.

For time itself . . . thank you.

When to the sessions of sweet silent thought
I summon up remembrance of things
past,
I sigh the lack of many a thing I
sought,
And with old woes mew wail my dear
times' waste:
Then can I drown an eye, unsued to
flow,
For precious friends hid in death's
dateless night,
And weep afresh love's long since
cancelled woe,
And moan the expense of many a
vanished sight,

HISTORY

Freshman Year

In the fall of 1967 the doors of Clinton High opened to a new and ambitious class — "the class of 71". Having a minute idea of what was in store, we entered bravely within the confines of the school. We could not foresee the memorable moments that laid ahead.

Our first class officers were elected to get us moving, they were: President — Brian Burgwinkle, Vice-President — Kathy Notaro, Secretary — Theresa Nosek and Treasurer — Mike McNally. We also elected to sell Christmas Cards, our first encounter in organized school activity. At least it was a start.

Early in October an outbreak of pandemonium prevailed as Las Vegas turned upside down when the Boston Red Sox won the American League Pennant. As the year progressed we experienced the thrill of a fired up football rally and enjoyed our first Thanksgiving Show in the school auditorium.

Looking out our homeroom windows, the snow had melted, spring had arrived, and our freshman year had come to an end.

Sophomore Year

As the summer of '68 was closing we began our second year within the walls of Clinton High School. We re-elected the same officers yet new faces appeared in the student council. Our first real activity as a class came when we sponsored a dance early in the fall. To the tune of "Cherish" the dance ended. We had not perfected our activities, but were on the right track towards class organization.

Later on in the year we held a car wash and cake sale from which an appreciative profit was realized. Unity and organization now became the theme of the "Class of 71."

The drama club staged the play "Seven Days In May" on May 8. Those of us who took part in it will never underestimate the possible number of things that can go wrong at the last minute. But thanks to some good ad-libbing the play turned out to be a success. A touch of acting talent was discovered among us as Franklin Grivakis won the "Best Supporting Actor" award for his role in our inter-class dramatics. More talent became evident as our Debate Team, comprised entirely of sophomores took the league trophy home.

During the last week of school we tried again and held another record hop. The introduction of psychedelic lighting and posters helped make this dance our biggest success yet, even though the lights flashed a few times due to the thunder and lightning outside.

So our year ended and we were half way through the time tunnel of C. H. S.

Junior Year

After a couple of dances and another successful car wash, we began to innovate a series of changes consistent with the times. Our newly elected officers were: David Jacobson—President; Kathy Notaro—Vice President; Kakie Donnelly—Secretary; and Mike McNally—Treasurer. After careful planning with the administration we held the school's first "grub day." We charged a small fee to the participants. A Christmas dance was held and was visited by our own Santa Claus, Dave McNally, who highlighted the evening by passing out lollipops.

Among our other activities was our production of "Foxy Grandma" starring no one other than Jean McNally, who filled the audience with laughs while capturing the Best Actress Award. As 1970 began, our class spirit grew with the arrival of the class rings. Our humor again became evident with the staging of "Up the Down Staircase." The basketball team compiled the greatest record in the history of Clinton High by winning sixteen of their seventeen regular games to clinch the co-championship of the Midland League and gain berths in the Clark Tournament and the District III playoffs. Our student council again acted by modifying the dress code so that girls could now wear slacks during the winter months.

Our last couple of months were highlighted by the College Boards, the National Honor Society induction ceremonies, and the biggest event of all—"A Time for Us"—our Junior Prom.

Senior Year

Just a few weeks after man's second landing on the moon our most memorable year of all began. The officers elected to lead us this year were: Bruce Garceau —President; Paul Lynskey—Vice President; Kakie Donnelly—Secretary; and Mike McNally, in his fourth year as Treasurer.

November 7, Election Day, meant a great deal to some of us as over one hundred students turned out at 6:30 in the morning to help in the famous sticker campaign for Congressman Philip J. Philbin.

We will never forget the rallies given for the football and basketball teams which played such an important part in building our sports enthusiasm. Again the Gael Basketball team shared the Midland League crown and proudly represented us in the post season tournament. Nor will we ever forget the three tape dances we held, or the introduction of a supply store on the first floor which was operated by the very active Distributive Education Club.

We learned the burden of responsibility and the necessity of keen planning a number of times that year. First came our Senior Hop, "A Winter's Dream," which, after more than a month of planning and revising, was held during Christmas vacation in the Knights of Columbus hall. Second came the hard, long, yet rewarding hours of our work on this yearbook. It required the skill and cooperation of the entire class to publish this book. But it was all worth it as we look back now.

We owe much for all the help we received from our teachers, the Administration, our yearbook advisor, our guidance counselors, and most of all our class advisors, whose many hours of work made it possible for us to graduate.

We began to realize, maybe too late, that in the years to follow we would reflect back on our great times at C. H. S. and know for certain that they were truly, "The best years of our lives."

We Can Work It Out

Achievement of a goal through careful planning.

Much of our success we owe to dedicated workers.

Twist and Shout

We developed both class and school spirit at our assemblies. We twisted and shouted for a Thanksgiving Day victory and a basketball team that filled headlines. We applauded our devoted coaches and we stood in ovation for a Congressman never to be forgotten.

Keep on dancing

It was a cool, gray Sunday night in the late autumn of '63, Ed Sullivan stepped on stage before millions of Americans watching their T.V. sets and introduced four young lads from England . . . and the world turned upside down as the Beatles gave birth to a new era in music.

Other groups such as the Rolling Stones and the Animals had a burning ambition to create a change in the music scene.

Early in our senior year we held many dances. Among them, a tape hop, C.H.S. will always remember. Among the top 60 of the sixties were "House of the Rising Sun", "Louie, Louie", "Don't Let the Sun Catch You Crying", and "Light My Fire".

Entering the '70's we were exposed to new dimensions of blues and modern rock, such as "Get Ready", "Leaving On A Jet Plane", and "I Heard It Through the Grapevine".

These songs will stay with us always as memories of the music that was ours.

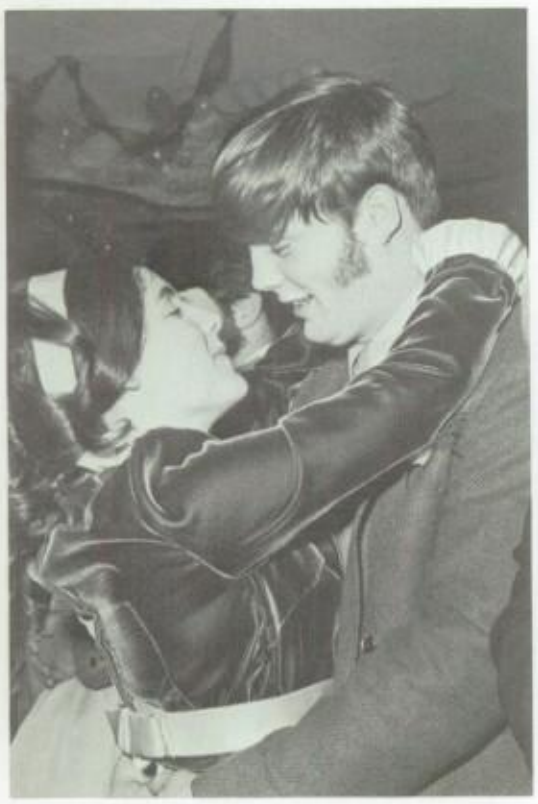
A Winter's Dream

After many weeks of decision making and chaos, the night arrived bringing with it much excitement and many enjoyable memories.



As the clock neared 11:00 P.M. A Winter's Dream became a girl's dream and Judy Konan became our queen.

Reigning with her were Dawn Reardon, Barbara Lavelle, Debbie Bodah, Sharon Jordan, Cindy Starr, and Kakie Donnelly.

Our Senior Hop was held outside the school, at the K. of C. Hall which was colorfully decorated by us. We broke tradition by bringing in a rock group and held our breaths that their 'hard rock' would be accepted. To our relief it turned out to be one of the most enjoyable and successful evenings of our High School years.

FOOTBALL

COACH AND CO-CAPTAINS

The 1970 football season despite it's record was filled with excitement. The Gaels played hardnosed football but were usually defeated in the final minutes of the game.

For their time and dedication the Class of "71" would like to extend their appreciation and thanks to Head Coach Owen Kilcoyne, Assistant Coaches Joseph Garofoli, James Peete, Bernard Gaughan, and Athletic Director David Hazel.

CLINTON–0
WACHUSETT–14

Due to the cancellation of football by Notre Dame the 1970 Gaels opened their season against Wachusett Regional before 3200 fans at Fuller Field. The game was hard fought, but first game errors cost the Gaels their first victory.

CLINTON–22
HUDSON–22

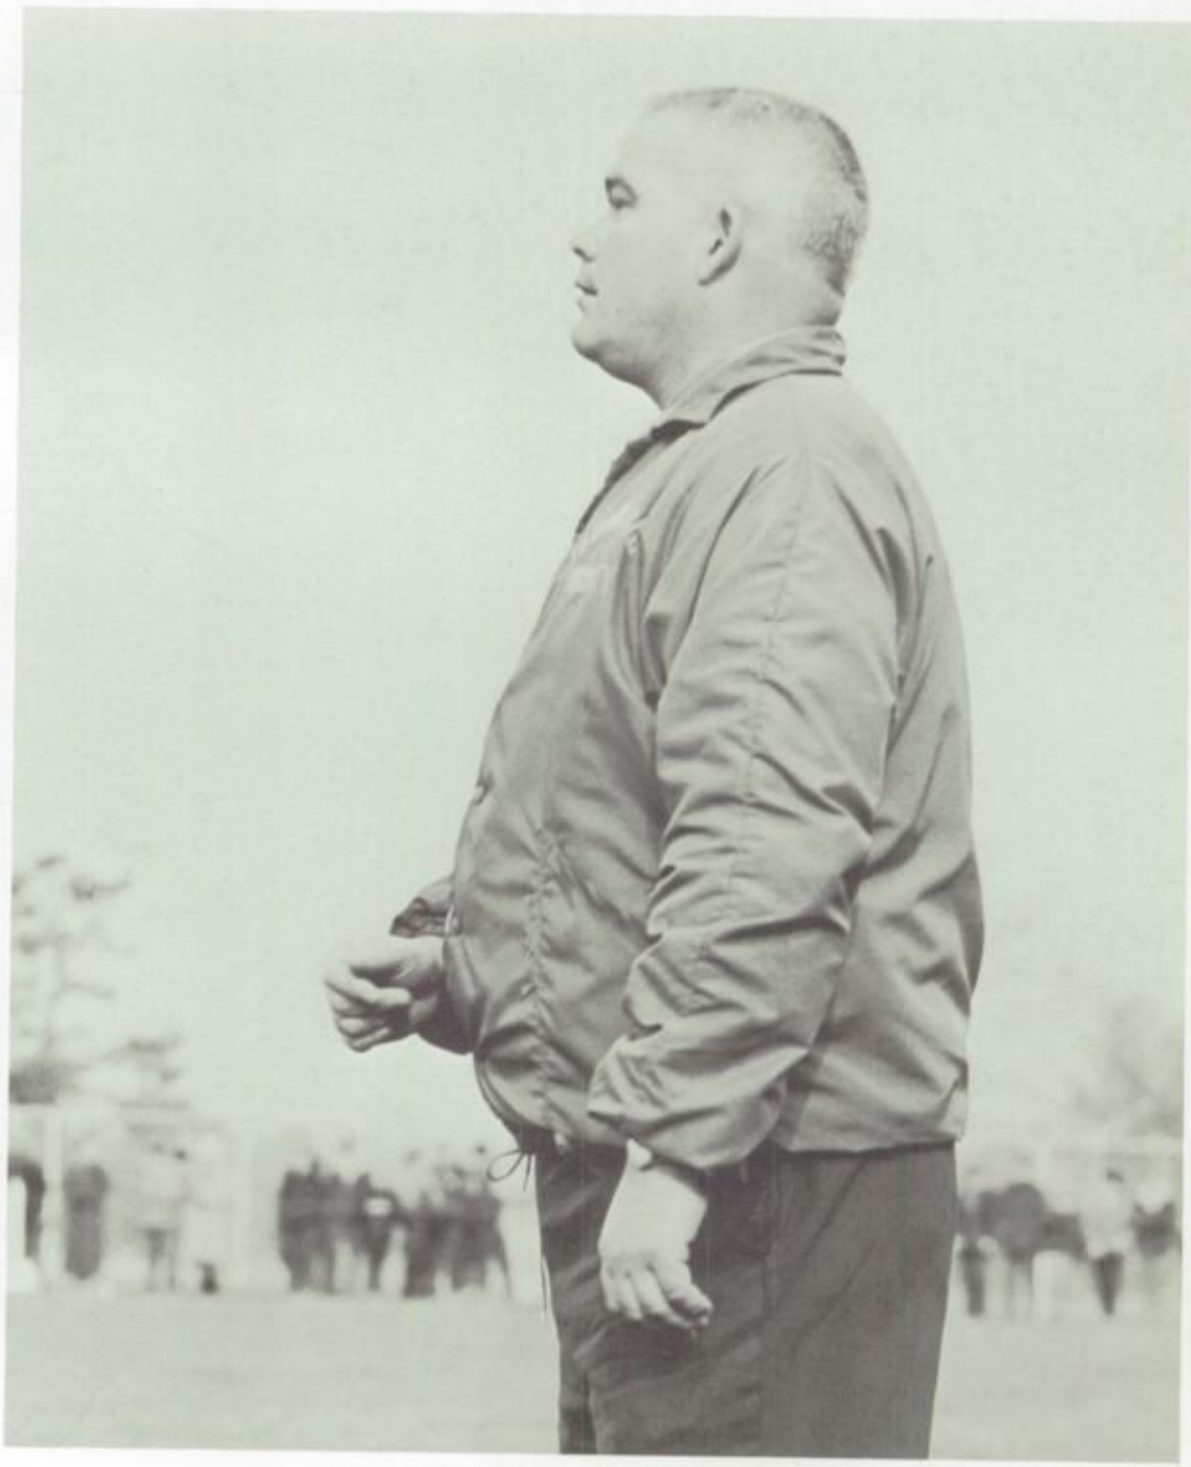
The Hudson Hawks invaded Fuller Field as a highly regarded and heavily favored football team. Clinton was a determined team and at the half led 15–0. Unfortunately the breaks of the game in the second half allowed Hudson to catch up and Clinton was forced to settle for a tie. Brian Burgwinkle, Brian Sanginario, and Bobby Baird were the Gael standouts.

CLINTON–7
SHREWSBURY–12

In what had to be the biggest letdown of the season the Gaels lost to Shrewsbury. After completely out-playing the Colonials, a desperation pass was completed in the end zone during the final 10 seconds to give Clinton it's second loss.

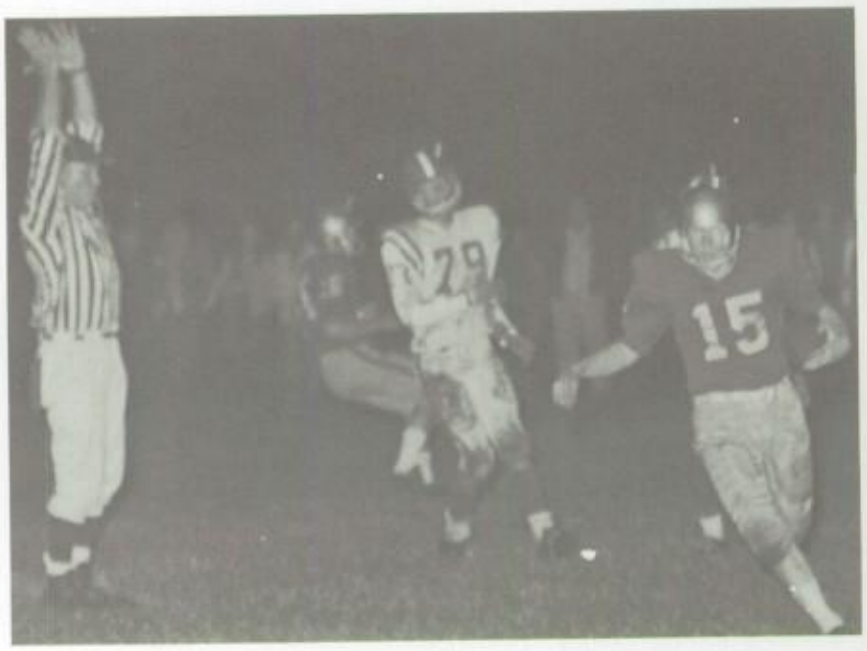
CLINTON–30
ST. BERNARDS–0

Despite a discouraging start the Galloping Gaels finally put it all together and walloped St. Bernards of Fitchburg. Gary Innamorati, Rich Hoag, Bruce Garceau, and Tim Parslow were the mainstays for the Gaels.



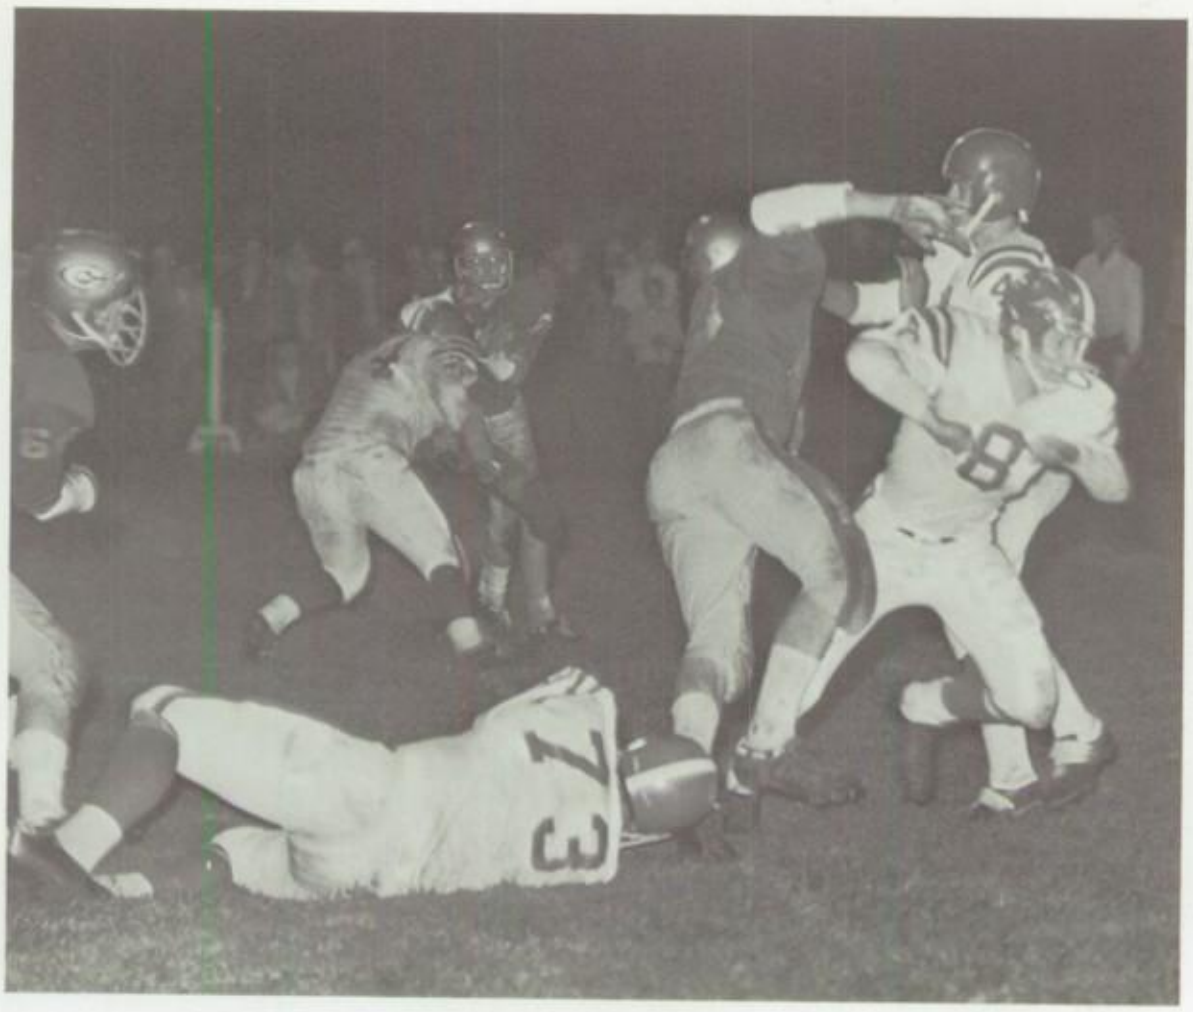
CLINTON–0
MILFORD–31

After a well deserved victory the Gaels locked horns with unbeaten and untied Milford. Although Clinton put up a game fight the Milford bench strength overcame the Gaels and they were forced to accept another defeat.



CLINTON–8
MARLBORO–8

The Gaels quickly regrouped and for the first half held Marlboro to a scoreless standoff. In the second half the Gaels scored first but once again the breaks of the game allowed Marlboro to tie the score and the green and gold was denied a victory. Ed Sheridan, John Burke, and Alan Baird led the defensive efforts of Clinton.



CLINTON–0
ALGONQUIN–14

Clinton traveled to Northboro to do battle with Algonquin Regional. After allowing two quick scores in the first period the defense stiffened and held the Tomahawks scoreless. The failure to put points on the board again cost a Gael victory.

CLINTON–12
MAYNARD–32

In what many people regard as one of the best games ever played on Fuller Field the Gaels ended their 1970 season. Maynard, a heavily favored team which had allowed only 20 points all season engaged in combat with a team of fired up Gaels. After a halftime standoff of 6–6 the Maynard strength began to show and the Gaels went down to defeat proudly. Senior standouts were Rich Hoag, Ed Sheridan, Brian Sanginario, Bruce Garceau, and John Burke.

CROSS-COUNTRY

The 1970 Harriers with eight senior runners compiled a 6–4 record while finishing second in the tough Midland League. Glen Braunhardt proved himself the top runner in the league by finishing the season undefeated. This season's success was the result of a fine team effort along with the coaching of Mr. Donald Burgwinkle. For his accomplishments the Class of "71" would like to extend their congratulations and thanks to Coach Burgwinkle.

BASKETBALL

The C. H. S. Gaels, under first year Coach, Gerry Foley, dominated the league and ended up with their second successive Midland League co-title. At the conclusion of the season the Gaels were invited to the Clark Tourney but lost to Bartlett 66-64. The principle reason for the team's 12-5 record was the all-out effort of nine seniors. Their team effort brought the Gaels an invitation to the District III Tournament and a chance to become State Champs.
